Madison, Wisconsin -- Stephen P. Sinnott, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Darryl Miller Chapman, DOB 12/24/73, of Lac du Flambeau, Wisconsin, was sentenced today by U.S. District Judge John C. Shabaz to 120 months in prison, to be followed by three years of supervised release, for distributing cocaine. Chapman pleaded guilty to this charge on February 9, 2006.

Shabaz noted that Chapman deserved a lengthy prison term due to his extensive criminal history and the fact that he had distributed cocaine and marijuana over the course of several years.

The charges against Chapman were the result of an investigation conducted by the Oneida County Sheriff's Department. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Paul W. Connell.
